GULFSIDE HOSPICE OPENS OFFICE IN DOWNTOWN ZEPHYRHILLS

ZEPHYRHILLS, FL (Jan. 2, 2025) – Clinical staff for Gulfside Hospice have a new address for their base of operations: downtown Zephyrhills. Staff members have moved into the building at 28416 Fifth Ave. in Zephyrhills which will serve as a home base for approximately 50 employees.

The team will be opening their doors to the community for an open house following the celebratory ribbon cutting on Wednesday, Jan. 8, at 11 a.m. Gulfside Healthcare Services The program includes brief remarks by Gulfside Healthcare Services President and CEO Linda Ward and other Gulfside leaders. Light refreshments will follow.

The East Clinical Office contains individual spaces for clinical care managers and assistants, patient supply stock, a charting area for documentation and visit scheduling, and a conference room for staff meetings and educational opportunities.

Gulfside Hospice staff are excited to be in downtown Zephyrhills. Director of Patient Care Services Julia Wise commented, "Many of our staff members have grown up in the area, and this gives them a sense of pride to be located in the heart of Zephyrhills." She continued, "It is a beautiful location and our business neighbors and the community have been welcoming and accommodating."
